

SCOTCH FUNERAL

Biography.

Scotch Funeral is a two-piece garage punk/antifolk band from North Wales, consisting of songwriter Adam James (guitar and vocals) and Jake McKenna (percussion).

Their battered drums, screaming fuzz, and seething vocals tear through ‘the bads and sads’ from self-destruction to self-preservation. Catchy melodies follow the palpitation of drums and are overlaid by devastatingly honest lyrics that range from topics such as mental health and substance abuse to decaying seaside towns and hiraeth.

Scotch Funeral started as a solo project from Adam, who has released several DIY, lo-fi recordings under that name since 2012. Scotch Funeral’s first live incarnation came in Autumn 2018 followed by a string of solo performances throughout Winter and the new year with Jake McKenna (Klaus Kinski) joining in the Summer of 2019.

They are currently rehearsing and recording their first studio album set for release in 2020.
